What's Ahead for Romance and Relationships in 2007?

Forget the supermarket tabloids with their wild predictions about romance and relationships during 2007 among the red-carpet set. We asked social scientists, psychologists, dating coaches, veteran daters and other experts to predict the love trends in 2007 - trends that the rest of us might actually experience. Here's what they told us.

"I believe people will evaluate their relationships carefully in '07," predicts Stacy D. Phillips. "They will stay in the relationships they perceive to be valuable, but forgo those that seem to be a struggle. As news reports continue to be saturated with school shootings, war and terrorist attacks, people will realize they have only one life to live!" -- Phillips, a certified family law specialist, is the author of "Divorce: It's All About Control - How To Win
